RE: Docket Nos. 98-075-C and 98- 076-C
Our File No. 545-10117

Dear Jocelyn:

I am writing on behalf of Knology of South Carolina, Inc. ("Knology"), to request that the Docketing Staff clarify the name on Knology's Certificates of Public Convenience and Necessity, issued by the South Carolina Public Service Commission, (the "Commission") in the above-referenced Dockets.

At the current time, the DMS lists the certificate holder as "Knology Holdings, Inc. d/b/a Knology of South Carolina, Inc." However, in 1998, Knology requested that the name on the certificates be amended to read simply "Knology of South Carolina, Inc." A copy of the letter is attached hereto.

For whatever reason, that change was never reflected in the Commission's records. Given that the name "Knology of South Carolina, Inc." was previously a "doing business as" name for the certificate holder, and because Knology of South Carolina, Inc. is clearly the regulated entity in South Carolina, I request that the Commission Staff revise the Docket entries to reflect the appropriate holder of these certificates.

Please let me know if you need any further information.

Sincerely,

s/John J. Pringle, Jr.

RE: Knology Holdings, Inc. (Order 98-445)

Dear Mr. Butler:

The Commission has granted, in the above referenced order, certificates to Knology Holdings, Inc. D/B/A Knology of Charleston, Inc. allowing it to provide intrastate interexchange and local exchange telecommunications services within the State of South Carolina.

Application was made in the name of Knology Holdings, Inc. D/B/A Knology of South Carolina, Inc. The above referenced order reflected this arrangement.

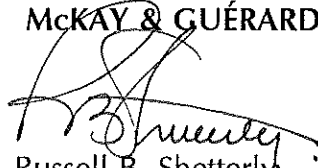

Knology has now undergone a corporate restructure and has placed its telecommunications services under a new division of Knology Holdings, Inc.. This new corporate division is entitled Knology of South Carolina, Inc.. There is no change in ownership and the new corporation has the same officers and directors as are reflected in the application.

On behalf of Knology Holdings, Inc. and Knology of South Carolina, Inc.. I am respectfully requesting that the Commission records and all certificates be updated to reflect this change. The revised tariffs which will be filed with the Commission will reflect the new name of Knology of South Carolina, Inc..

Please advise if we need to take any further action to operate the certificated telecommunications services under the name of Knology of South Carolina, Inc..

Sincerely,

HAYNSWORTH, MARION,
